

4 Principles to Enhance the Most Important Part of Your Meeting

Highlights

- If we believe that the teaching time is the most important
1. Principle of Expectation
 - Do we believe that God is going to change a student life?
 - We will gather as a team to pray
 2. Principle of Delegation
 - We have to use creative elements, if we are to engage them. This take planning and delegation
 - Plan your teaching schedule 4-6 weeks out
 - This allows you to delegate any outside involvement
 - Develop a creative team of 3-5 student – help connect to culture
 3. Principle of Preparation
 - This enhances your creativity and passion
 - 4 week out – skim over to understand the direction of the lesson
 - 3 weeks out – Right out the main points, verses
 - 2 weeks out- begin rehearsing, creativity, illustration
 - 1 week out – run through, review the intro and application sections
 4. Principle of Communication
 - Use personal stories, use your own words
 - Think of 3 types of students(lost, saved – loved God, saved not living God)
 5. Application:
 - Take an hour to schedule out 4-6 weeks
 - Who are the 3-5 students on the creative team
