

Caring for the Victims of Divorce

Highlights

- Have we become calloused to divorce?]
- Do we understand what is threatening their belief systems
  1. Ask the right questions:
    - You have to get to the heart
    - They are never fine
    - You talk about your dad, but not mom, does your mom live at home?
    - How long? How much hurt?
    - Seek God to help you ask the right question
  2. Discern behavior:
    - Look for indicators ( relationships, loud, attention seekers)
    - Personal then specific with them, then ask questions
    - They cannot separate actions and emotions
    - They are purposely trying to fill a void
  3. Value them:
    - “I value you”
    - Speak it, write it, celebrate it
    - Identify what is important them
    - Value comes with commitment (presently)
    - Hurting people, hurt people
    - Ephesians 1 – highlight who they are in Christ

Resource:

Word of Life Pressure Point : Forgiveness, Divorce

Take Away

- _____
- _____
- _____

Caring for the Victims of Divorce

Highlights

- Have we become calloused to divorce?]
- Do we understand what is threatening their belief systems
  4. Ask the right questions:
    - You have to get to the heart
    - They are never fine
    - You talk about your dad, but not mom, does your mom live at home?
    - How long? How much hurt?
    - Seek God to help you ask the right question
  5. Discern behavior:
    - Look for indicators ( relationships, loud, attention seekers)
    - Personal then specific with them, then ask questions
    - They cannot separate actions and emotions
    - They are purposely trying to fill a void
  6. Value them:
    - “I value you”
    - Speak it, write it, celebrate it
    - Identify what is important them
    - Value comes with commitment (presently)
    - Hurting people, hurt people
    - Ephesians 1 – highlight who they are in Christ

Resource:

Word of Life Pressure Point : Forgiveness, Divorce

Take Away

- _____
- _____
- _____

